Thank You

Administration and Staff

Thank You Administration and Staff: We understand that the 2020-2021 school year has been a challenge for students and faculty alike, but your endless support has been crucial to our success here at Bellingham High School. We understand how difficult it has been to teach online, create new lesson plans on the fly, and juggle three cohorts. This year is truly unprecedented, but you have all proved that hard work and dedication can go a long way. On behalf of all of the students at Bellingham High School, especially the seniors, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for making sacrifices to make sure that we can get a proper education. Every single staff member has played an essential role in keeping all the students safe and allowing each day to run as smoothly as possible. Thank you so much for everything you have done this year and in past years, it does not go unnoticed.

Thank You Advisors

We want to thank Mrs. Doyle and Ms. Cormier from the bottom of our hearts for all of the hard work you have both put in since eighth grade. We know that it has been a challenge, especially with COVID, but on behalf of all the Class of 2021, we are all so grateful to have had two amazing women to guide us as a class. Above all, we are so appreciative of how you allowed us voice our opinions and let us feel like we were in control of our time here at Bellingham High School. The next class is so lucky to be able to work with you, because you have helped us all not only grow as leaders, but also as people. Thank you, again, for everything that you have done for us and we will all miss you!

Mrs. Sarah Doyle

Mrs. Doyle, we are so honored to have had you as our advisor since 8th grade. We know that our group of officers has changed slightly through out the years, but it has been a privilege to have gone through it all with you. Thank you for everything you have done.

Ms. Sarah Cormier

Ms. Cormier, we were so fortunate to have you join our team sophomore year, and we admire how dedicated you are to making our high school experience the best it could be. We are all so lucky to be given the opportunity to work with you and would not trade it for the world.

CLASS ADDRESS

Good evening everyone. I would like to start by saying thank you to all of the families here for attending this year's graduation ceremony, and a special thank you to the faculty, staff, and class advisors, Mrs Doyle and Mrs Cormier, for making this year's graduation possible. Even with all of the challenges that have arisen this year, that have forced us to adapt and overcome like never before, you have all gone above and beyond to make sure we are able to celebrate our graduation as a class, and for that we are greatly appreciative. Also, thank you to all of the parents and mentors out there who have stuck with us, even through our stubborn moments, and have pushed us to succeed. And to the graduates of the Class of 2021, thank you for providing me with an abundance of stories and experiences to share for decades to come. From the little day to day moments, to the bigger ones, such as the sudden appearance of rubber ducks being put around the school, and clocks being found in the toilets, the people around us have most definitely made our high school careers memorable.

Normally, high school is a four year experience, but for us the fear of the upperclassmen started a year earlier than for most, beginning in 8th grade. We were shoved into a completely new school with people twice our size, and minimal social skills or real world experiences. And let's not forget the shifting boundaries program that we had to endure. I remember everyone saying how high school goes by so fast, but I couldn't believe that, especially since I would have an additional year added to high school, and five years felt like it would be forever. These past five years that I thought would feel like an eternity are now suddenly over, and today will be one of the final moments where we will all be together as a class, and as students of BHS.

In our Freshman year we started to make our mark in the school when we played powderpuff football and proved to be real competition, later winning it all in our sophomore year, and stealing the title from the Seniors that year. A Senior win is how it usually goes, so a Sophomore win started an uproar (even though we won fair and square). The pink football that stands in one of the trophy cases filled with our classmates' names always brings a smile to my face. It truly represents how we have the capability to achieve our goals and how relentless we are when it comes to following our ambitions. Even though it was a football game with a bunch of inexperienced players, it demonstrated the way that our class can come together and overcome the obstacles in our way when we put our minds to it.

Our Junior year started pretty basic as usual, with us walking through the doors that September ready to endure the overwhelming heat that radiated through the building at that time of year. Our classmates were just starting to get their licenses, and it felt as though we were really growing up and maturing. Junior year felt like a normal blur of classes, up until that March. When we were at first given a two week break from school, it sounded like heaven. But then two weeks turned to four, and then became months, and before we knew it we were entering our Senior year of high school after having spent a summer and the end of our previous school year in masks and quarantine.

This time, arriving back to school in September was nothing like previous years. It was so weird having different cohorts, not seeing the hallways filled with students, and classes that functioned in a hybrid model, with students attending remotely as well as in person. Even though we were all in our final year of high school, we weren't all physically together. However, something about this experience has made these last few moments and events we have had together in these final weeks even more special. We are all able to get together for these final moments of our high school career and share our memories and experiences from throughout our years at BHS, and through this we have come together as a class. COVID provided a challenge for us and caused separation and isolation, but we were able to overcome it together as a class, finally enjoying being Seniors, including the extremely competitive corn hole tournament from two days ago.

Although this year was different from others, at the end of it all we have worked through these twelve years of schooling for this moment. I've never been prouder of us all and everything that we have accomplished. From these many experiences that we have shared, and the resilience I have seen in all of my fellow classmates, I know that wherever our next steps take us, we will excel. Finally, we are becoming adults after all this time, and it is our turn to leave our legacy, not only at BHS, but wherever we go next. Congratulations to my fellow graduates of the class of 2021!

Class Vice President Kaithlyn Little

First of all, I want to thank all of our teachers, our families, and everyone else who has helped us to all be here today. And, of course, congratulations to my fellow graduates, as this is a huge milestone in our lives. In a way, this speech is the hardest assignment I have had to do over these past four years. I have struggled with how I am going to encapsulate all our collective experiences from these past several years into a single speech, without just rambling.

I feel like I have looked forward to this day for much of my life, and I suspect many of you have as well. All of our hard work over the past four years has finally paid off, and because of that we are all here today. These past few years have created a foundation for each of us to build our lives off of, and we would not be the same without our experiences through them. I can easily recall many memories from my years here at Bellingham High School. Over our last few days of school, I'm sure you all have also been thinking about the many memories we have made here, from sports games, to pep rallies, to studying hard and cramming for tests. Even now, so long after, I can still remember and feel some of the stress I had from procrastinating a little too much on some assignments, and having to stay up late to finish them. Hopefully not too many you can relate to still being that stressed, but I think it demonstrates how we've all made powerful memories here. While I carry these memories into the future, I also hope to carry the friendships I have made. I still have friends that I met long ago, some even from the first day of kindergarten, nearly thirteen years ago.

For so many years I have looked forward to graduating from high school and making the next big leap in my life. However, I am not the most sentimental person, so I always thought I would make that leap with no hesitation. But standing here now, I realize it is hard to look to the future without reflecting on the past. We now all have to make that leap into the next phase of our lives, whether that means pursuing further education, entering the workforce, enlisting in the military or spending some extra time to figure out what you want to do with your life, we have all earned these opportunities. Of course, looking to the future, things will be different for all of us. For the first time in our lives, we will not all be attending the same school, with the same classmates we've had for years. It seems like we are all going in different directions with our lives, and for many of us, it will likely be difficult to be without the friends and family we have grown up with, but this is just the start of our lives, and there is an entire world to explore. I have such fond memories from growing up in our small town, so I am incredibly excited to see what amazing memories I will be soon making in my life moving on. I am also excited to see what all of you make out of your lives, and the things you will all achieve. I hope you all can excuse how I've glossed over the past. I think our history here is so incredibly important to us, but I have always been one to look towards the future. I am excited to see what impact we will all have on the world in our lives.

Finally, I feel like I am obligated to mention how the past year or so has been so incredibly weird for us all. None of us could have expected our senior year to be like this. There have been so many changes to our plans and expectations. However, despite that, we are all here today, and if the past year has taught me anything, it is to not take anything for granted, and to appreciate each moment more. While we reminisce about the past, it is easy to think of what you could have done to change things, what different decisions you could have made; but we cannot change the past. Here, while we look to the future, we are all planning our lives out, but certainly not everything will go according to plan; this previous year has certainly taught us that. So today, while we all reflect on our valued memories here, and while we look to the future and try to plan our lives, I hope you all take some time to simply appreciate today for what it is. We cannot change the past or predict the future, we all have to live in the moment, so we might as well enjoy it.

Again, I want to thank everyone who has helped us to get here today. I have always been terrible at writing, so hopefully, due to all of the hard work of our English teachers, I have been able to write at least an adequate speech for today. Thank you to all of our science teachers, who helped me to find my passion for science and helped me decide what I want to do with my life through your classes and lessons. Thank you to our history teachers, who have gotten me to truly appreciate the past for how it has shaped our world to be what it is now, and thank you to our foreign language teachers, who have opened my eyes to truly how much in the world there is to learn.

Emily Dickinson wrote in one of her poems, "forever is composed of nows," and I believe the same is true of the past. Today certainly is a day to reminisce, as well as to look towards our bright futures, but the future is uncertain and the only way we can have pleasant memories is because of our decisions made in the current moment. So please, today, enjoy every single moment for what it is, as we will never have another high school graduation.

So thank you all for your valued time in all of your current moments.

Valedictorian Shui Li Eu-Balint

Hello, and good afternoon to the families, friends, and faculty members that are here to watch as myself and my fellow classmates graduate! I want to say a huge thank you to the parents and guardians in the crowd, especially mine, for dealing with us through our best and our worst; without you, we would not have had the support to make it to where we are today. First, I want to congratulate my classmates. I am so proud of everyone for making it this far, and I am so excited to see where each of your paths take you. When I was first told that I would be giving a speech at graduation, my dad said that he would boo me off the stage if I made it too long, but I feel that there is no concise way to sum up the feelings I have as I stand before all of you today.

I was surprised at how difficult it was for me to write this speech, because, as anyone who has ever had a class with me knows, I love to get up in front of the class and talk. But now that this moment is here, I feel speechless. I know it is cliché, but it feels like just yesterday that we were eighth graders, anxiously awaiting our Washington DC trip, and then freshmen, getting yelled at for bottle flipping in the cafeteria (shout out to Mr. Forbes for eventually banning bottle flipping). I did not believe everyone when they said that these four years of high school would be the quickest four years of my life, but I should have.

I still remember being in first grade, in 2010, when my oldest brother was graduating from high school, and I was trying to calculate my own graduation year. 2021 felt like light years away; it was just a distant dream. But now, the day is finally here.

This is a big transition for all of us. Most of us do not know much beyond the halls of Bellingham High School, but in the words of C.S. Lewis, “there are far, far better things ahead than any we leave behind”. So while it may seem scary to step out of our comfort zones and into the unknown, this is only the beginning of the rest of our lives.

This is truly a bittersweet moment, although I am sure most of us can agree, it is definitely more sweet than bitter. But as I stand here right now, all of the memories that make this moment feel so bitter come rushing back. Performing in the 3rd grade talent show to the song “Who Let the Dogs Out”, getting out of class during the Hoops for Hearts fundraiser in middle school, even passing out during MCAS in sophomore year, are among the hundreds of fond memories I have that make leaving Bellingham so hard, and I am sure each of you have hundreds of your own memories that make this a difficult goodbye.

Despite all of this, I cannot help but be excited to move on. It is like that quote that everyone has heard so many times, “Don’t cry because it’s over, smile because it happened”. This perfectly applies to what we are all going through today. While this is a sad change in our lives, I look out at all of you in front of me and I see young adults who have an entire future ahead of them. Whether you are moving on to college, going into the workforce, or enlisting in the military, I am confident that each and every one of you will succeed.

Everyone tells you that high school is the best four years of your life, but I hope that isn’t true for us. As John Wayne said, “Tomorrow is the most important thing in life. Comes into us at midnight very clean. It’s perfect when it arrives and it puts itself in our hands. It hopes we’ve learned something from yesterday.” I encourage all of you to seize every moment of every day, and make each year better than the last.

I also want to thank Bellingham High School as a whole. Thank you for all of the laughs in Mr. Haddad’s class, the cries in the bathroom, and the badminton tournaments in gym class. These are memories I will have forever. Thank you to the teachers and staff who dealt with talkative students (or opinionated as Mrs. Sjogren would call me), our naps in class, and having to adapt to an entire pandemic. Thank you Class of 2021 for making high school relatively bearable, I would not want to go through it with anyone else, and I am so excited to see what your futures hold.

Salutatorian McKenna Castello

Class History

The history of our class began first in the three elementary schools in Bellingham. From South, Stallbrook, and Clara Macy Elementary School, many of us grew up right here in Bellingham since we first started school from kindergarten to fourth grade. It was here where some of our oldest friendships were formed and great memories came from. Even though we came from these three different elementary schools, eventually we all met for the first time together at Bellingham Memorial Middle School. In middle school, as a class we began to branch out and explore other activities that we began to be interested in, like sports, art, band, or drama. Despite this gradual separation of our interests, we still had the same shared experiences from playing the pin game in Mr. Chiappone's gym class or listening to the radio while making art with Mrs. Benson. Our class went to Nature's Classroom, our first overnight stay anywhere, which was a great and positive experience if you just forget about that one sign that got broken. We played SumDog and did our KhanAcademy on devices, but mostly ended up playing cool math games if we're being honest. In seventh grade, we were able to have so many fun events set up throughout the year like Pumpkin Chunkin and Pi Day, where our dreams of throwing pie at their teachers were completed. The culmination of our middle school experience in my opinion was at the end of seventh grade at the culture fair. It was here where we got to make food, work together to make fun games, and explore other countries all in a single hallway.

The transition to high school came sooner than expected for us when we went to the high school for eighth grade. All of a sudden, we were thrust into a school with rotating classes, having three different lunches, and seniors twice our size. It was a big adjustment for a bunch of thirteen and fourteen year olds, but we did it together along with the help of our teachers. Being eighth graders in the high school meant that we were quickly involved with the rest of the school, whether that was participating in spirit week or worrying about being in the same gym class as upperclassmen. For many of us, the highlight of our eighth grade year was the trip to Washington D.C. For about a week we were able to have fun together away from home and hang out with our friends.

Our official high school time began in ninth grade, but we had already been in the school for a year at that point. However, for the first time in this school we were treated like high schoolers. We were able to go to the homecoming dance, play varsity sports, and pick our own classes fully for the first time. I think it was at this time in our lives that we began to fully explore our interests and find our group of friends for the rest of high school. Our first mark on the school was getting google chat taken away on our chromebooks in the very first few weeks. From here, it's hard to encapsulate our class history into one experience, because we were all doing exciting things in high school that differed from one another. There were some experiences that united everyone in our grade and school though. During spirit week every year, we all got together to dress up with the various themes for each day and be a part of a larger community than just ourselves.

At the pep rally, we banded together to cheer on our very own sports teams and watch Mr. Holmes play basketball with a few lucky students. Through events like these, our grade and overall school felt very connected in a way that is hard to find elsewhere. While some crazy things have happened during our time in high school that have both been good and bad, we have been through them together and can now look back and enjoy the times we have had together. Our powderpuff team did well and pretty much was the best team every year with not much competition. Our class also has many great athletes who are going on to play in college, and we've had some great sports teams and some not so great teams in these past four years of high school. Obviously I can't talk about school without talking about our teachers, but we've had some great teachers who are no longer teaching that I wanted to quickly shoutout like Mr. Holmes, Mrs. Lavalee, and Mrs. Lorusso. We've also had some interesting changes, like the three different spanish teachers I had in a single year or the different chemistry teachers for last year's class, but we ended up making it through those strange times.

One of the defining moments of high school for us was the COVID-19 pandemic in March of our junior year. What looked to be an exciting spring with our first prom and summer before our senior year was quickly canceled as cases began to rise in the United States and around the world. At first, we saw this as just a two week vacation from school to relax while staying at home. This unfortunately turned into a year and a half of masks, social distancing, and remote school. Our junior year ended with a sudden change to online classes for the rest of the year and a growing uncertainty as we looked toward our senior year. Seeing the previous year's seniors miss out on their end of high school had us worried about our own senior year too.

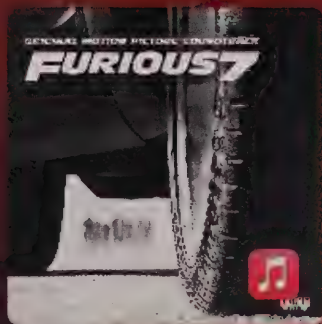

After a summer of continuing restrictions, we started our last year of high school in what felt like a completely different school at first. Having both in person classes and online classes in the same week, while wearing masks in school and at our activities changed the dynamic of our senior year. Many of us had to adjust quickly to the new schedule in school and get ready for the upcoming deadlines for college applications and other plans after high school. Our senior year was rapidly changing with the cancellation of our original spirit week and uncertainty about our spring events. Luckily, we were still able to pull off these events and plan based on the restrictions with COVID. With graduation, prom, spirit week, senior sunrise, and a barbeque, we could still have some semblance of a regular senior year. Our class has definitely not had the average high school experience, but we were able to make it to the end together today. From meme pages, fights, to pranks, our time at Bellingham High School has been interesting to say the least. Ultimately, despite our differences between each of us, we are still one group of people who have grown up together and made the best of our years together.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

We hope you all enjoy our yearbook. A lot of hard work and dedication went into it so it could be the very best given the circumstances. Thank you to our advisor, Melissa Newman, for helping us through this process every step of the way. To our fellow yearbook committee members, thank you for the effort you displayed, we truly had a great team this year. And lastly, to our fellow seniors, thank you for an amazing 5 years and an abundance of stories to tell. We wish you all the best.

Goodbye Class of 2021!

YEAR IN REVIEW

Walsworth yearbooks

JUNE

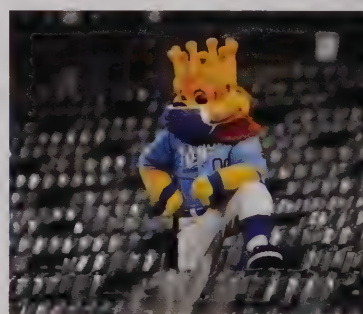

A Rising Movement. Black Lives Matter protests break out across the nation after George Floyd's death in police custody in Minneapolis. Floyd's death, which followed the deaths of Ahmaud Arbery and Breonna Taylor, sparked national outrage. Controversy arose, however, as some protests turned violent with looting and destruction of businesses. Photo credit: Newscom

Fire the Engines. Throughout the month, Americans follow the progress of the SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket on a test flight to the International Space Station. NASA launched the rocket on May 30 from the Kennedy Space Center. It was the first time NASA launched astronauts in a commercially built spacecraft. Photo credits: Newscom

Supreme Ruling. DACA recipients and advocates celebrate after the Supreme Court's landmark decision. The court ruled to protect the DACA program from being dismantled and LGBTQ employees from workplace discrimination. It was a summer full of decisions on a wide range of controversial issues. Photo credits: Newscom

Short and Sweet. The COVID-19 pandemic drastically shortens the Major League Baseball season to 60 games. Originally scheduled to start March 26 and last 162 games, MLB agreed in June on safety protocols, like empty stadiums, and a July start date. The wild two-month sprint ended with an expanded 16-game postseason. Photo credit: Newscom

timeline of events

First Lady
"Chromatica" becomes Lady Gaga's sixth straight No. 1 album.

Full Speed Ahead
NASCAR bans the display of Confederate flags at all events and properties.

Open for Business
States begin allowing businesses to reopen as COVID-19 restrictions ease.

Home Entertainment
Celebrities like Katy Perry and Josh Groban offer virtual concerts.

in a class of their own

Families gather to honor their 2020 graduates after an unprecedented and unpredictable senior year. Graduation ceremonies looked different with masks and social distancing but were no less of a celebration. While some schools maintained physical ceremonies, others kept families in their cars as they drove up to receive diplomas. Photo credits: Phil Roeder

timeline of events

Field Day. Major League Soccer (MLS) becomes the first pro team sport in the U.S. to return to the field during the COVID-19 pandemic by kicking off its MLS is Back tournament.

24

25

Check, Please. The last federal unemployment assistance checks from the CARES Act go out after Congress fails to reach an agreement on an extension.

27

Spare Change. News reports indicate fewer people are using cash, causing the U.S. Mint to face a national coin shortage.

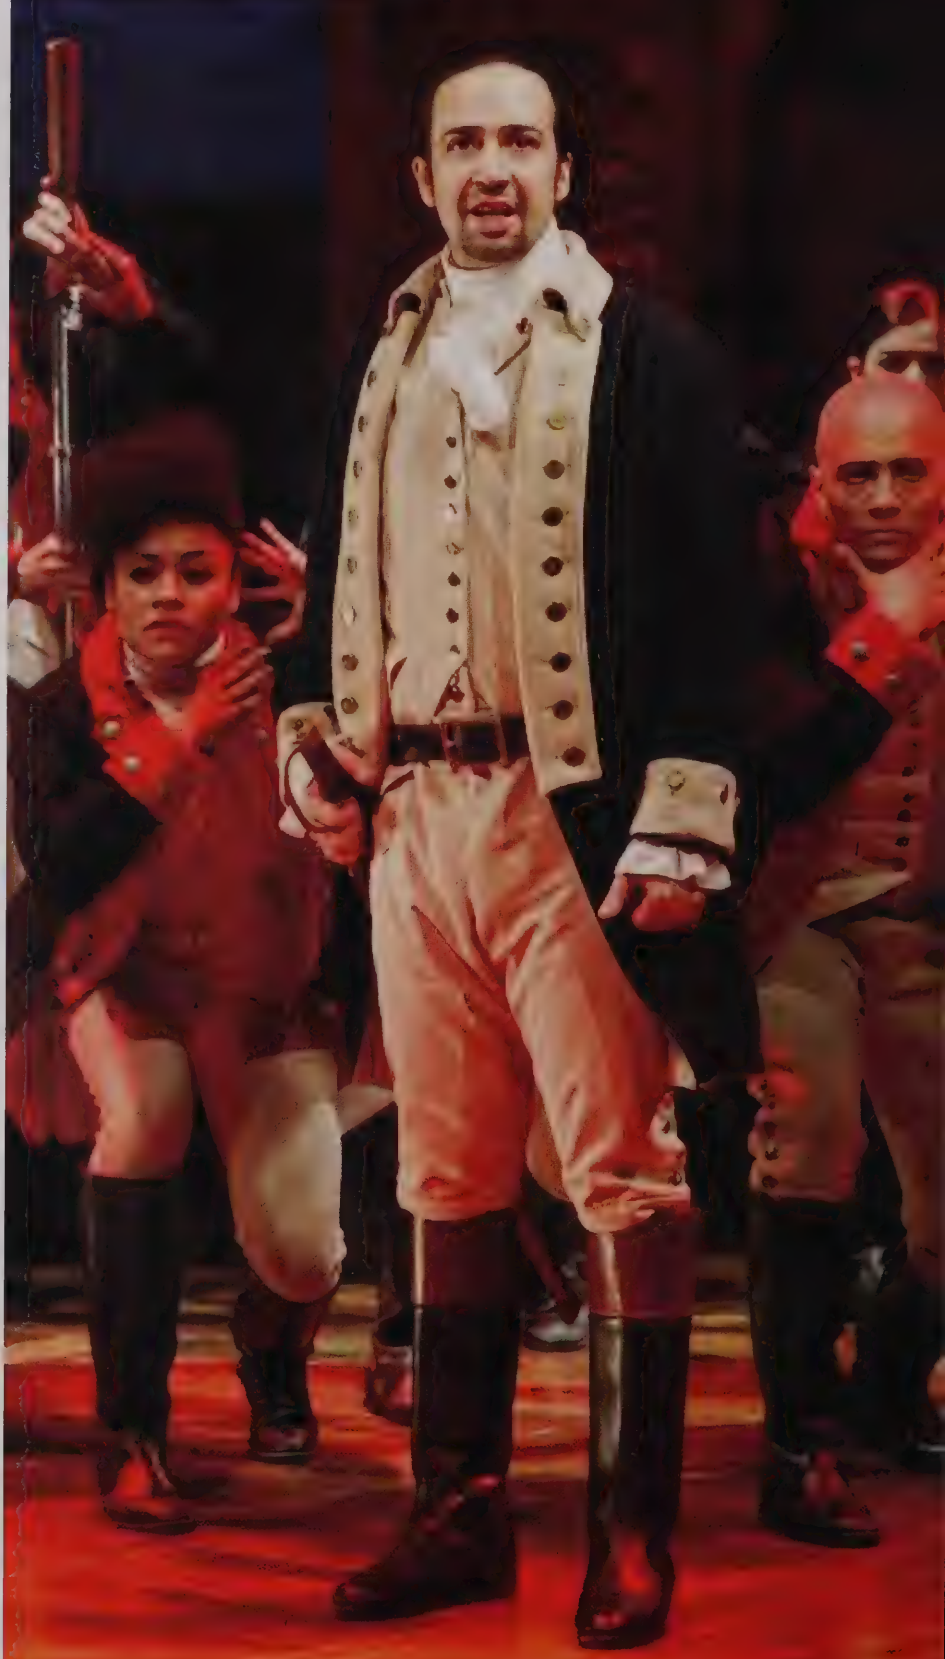

31

Visual Masterpiece. Beyoncé's "Black is King" visual album drops on Disney+, a companion piece to her 2019 album, "The Gift." Photo credit: Newscom

RISE UP

Creator, composer and lead actor Lin-Manuel Miranda stands center stage during a performance of his hit Broadway musical Hamilton. The musical told the story of Alexander Hamilton, one of America's founding fathers. Thousands of new fans discovered Hamilton after a movie version of the show, featuring Miranda and the original cast, was released on the Disney+ channel in July. Photo credit: Newscom

Just Passing Through. A new comet named NEOWISE passes over Joshua Tree National Park in late July. Astronomers first discovered NEOWISE in the spring. The comet, the brightest since Hale-Bopp in 1997, was visible at night for most of July.

JULY

Notable Farewells. Americans said goodbye to some noteworthy figures who passed away in July. Among those was John Lewis, congressman from Georgia and famous civil rights leader. Others included talk-show host Regis Philbin, former “Glee” TV star Naya Rivera, actress Kelly Preston, Rev. C.T. Vivian, former presidential candidate Herman Cain and country music legend Charlie Daniels. Photo credits: Newscom

Going Pro. After years of debate, the NFL’s Washington, D.C.-based franchise announces on July 13 that it will change its name and temporarily be called the Washington Football Team. Increasing pressure to change the team name that many considered offensive led to the decision. The team would work on selecting a permanent name and mascot over the coming months.

A Knight to Remember. Queen Elizabeth II knights Captain Sir Thomas Moore at Windsor Castle in gratitude for his efforts for Britain’s National Health Service charities. The 100-year-old World War II veteran originally set out to raise about $1,300 by walking 100 laps in his backyard but raised $40 million when his story went viral. The queen arrived after attending a secret wedding ceremony for her granddaughter, Princess Beatrice, and the event marked her first public appearance since the lockdown began.

President West? Rapper Kanye West announces via Twitter on the 4th of July that he will run for president as an independent. The controversial musician only made it on the ballot in a handful of states. Most political analysts viewed his campaign as a stunt to promote his music.

Changing of the Times. Employees lower and remove the state flag from outside the Capitol building in Jackson, Mississippi. Governor Tate Reeves signed into law a new bill banning the Confederate emblem from appearing on the flag. New flag options were designed with voters expected to choose in November.

California Senator Kamala Harris makes history as the first woman of color to run for vice president on a major party ticket as she and former Vice President Joe Biden sign ballot paperwork ahead of the Democratic National Convention. The convention was held the week of Aug. 17 as a mostly virtual event due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Republican National Convention was held the week of Aug. 24 with more in-person events, but it was a scaled down convention with many outdoor events, including President Trump speaking on the White House lawn.

Welcome Home.

Astronaut Bob Behnken, seen here during a June spacewalk at the International Space Station (ISS), returns home on Aug. 2 with astronaut Doug Hurley. Behnken and Hurley spent more than two months aboard the ISS. Their mission was noteworthy because they traveled on a spacecraft built by SpaceX – the first time NASA astronauts piloted crafts built by a commercial company.

Baby Daisy. Pop star Katy Perry and actor Orlando Bloom make headlines when Perry gives birth to their first child on Aug. 26. The couple named their daughter Daisy Dove Bloom. Baby gifts and well wishes came pouring in from celebrity friends and the public.

Wakanda Forever. Actor Chadwick Boseman, who became famous for playing the character Black Panther in the popular Marvel Universe movies, dies on Aug. 28 after a four-year battle with colon cancer. The news of his death was a shock to many as Boseman had managed to keep his illness very private. A public outpouring of condolences and positive memories of Boseman followed the news. Photo credit: Newscom sports return!

Ahead of the Rest. 23-year old American golfer Collin Morikawa wins the PGA Championship by two shots over Dustin Johnson and Paul Casey. Photo credit: Newscom

14

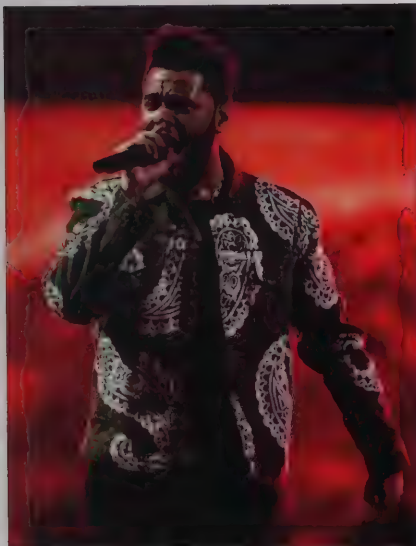

Reaching the Goals. Soccer powerhouse Bayern Munich becomes the first team to ever score eight goals in a UEFA Champions League match, routing Barcelona, 8-2.

25

Strike That. Chicago White Sox pitcher Lucas Giolito throws a no-hitter, 4-0, over the Pittsburgh Pirates. He struck out 13 and only gave up one walk. Photo credit: Newscom

26

Wait for It. NBA playoff games get postponed when all teams involved decide to sit in protest after the Jacob Blake shooting.

Quite a Night. Canadian pop star The Weeknd, seen here performing during a 2017 concert in Copenhagen, is a big winner at the MTV Video Music Awards on Aug. 31. The Weeknd won Video of the Year for his song "Blinding Lights," his first time winning an MTV Video award after being nominated in four previous years. Lady Gaga and Ariana Grande also performed at the online awards show, both wearing masks. Photo credits: Newscom

Blast in Beirut. A warehouse storing large amounts of ammonium nitrate at the port of Beirut, Lebanon, exploded on the afternoon of Aug. 4. The blast resulted in at least 200 deaths and more than 6,500 injured. An investigation revealed the explosive material had possibly been stored unsafely in the warehouse for as long as six years. Photo credit: Newscom

Reading, 'riting, Remote Learning.

A teacher connects with her students through video chat. Continuing concern about the risks of COVID-19 meant districts pushed back their start dates by weeks. Many schools gave the option for remote learning, in-class learning or some combination of the two, while some parents around the U.S. explored the possibility of homeschooling.

Fowl Mouth. An African grey parrot at the Lincolnshire Wildlife Park sounds off – and its words may be inappropriate. The British wildlife sanctuary removed five parrots from the public area of the park after they began swearing at visitors and each other. Billy, Eric, Tyson, Jade and Elsie were adopted in August, then moved away from public earshot in September.

Burning Up. Deadly wildfires sweep through the west coast, destroying homes and businesses, claiming lives and sending smoke as far inland as Michigan. The fires in California, Oregon and Washington claimed at least 35 lives and burned more than four million acres. Due to the poor air quality, the Environmental Protection Agency recommended people use N95 respirators to protect themselves, which were already in short supply due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Photo credits: Newscom

Signs of Life. It's possible that the cloudy, hot atmosphere of Venus could harbor life forms. Researchers found the molecule phosphine in the yellow planet's sulfuric acid clouds. This didn't confirm the existence of life on Venus, but researchers said the only explanation for phosphine is that it's being produced by a living being or generated through a chemical process not yet known to science. A Clean Sweep. "Schitt's Creek" earns 15 Emmy nominations with nine wins and is the first comedy to sweep all seven major prize categories, including Outstanding Comedy Series. Cast members Eugene Levy, Catherine O'Hara, Dan Levy and Annie Murphy each took home Emmys for their performances. At 24, Zendaya became the youngest person ever to win Outstanding Lead Actress in a Drama Series for her role in HBO's "Euphoria." Photo credits: Newscom

THE NOTORIOUS RBG

The nation mourns Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg's death on Sept. 18 at the age of 87 from complications due to metastatic pancreatic cancer. Over the course of her prolific legal career, Ginsburg argued many landmark cases relating to gender discrimination and was nominated to the Supreme Court in 1993. Known for her dissenting opinions and the collars she wore with her robes – especially her dissent collar – Ginsburg gained pop-culture fame and was often referred to as “RBG.” She was the first woman to lie in state at the U.S. Capitol, and her death raised heated debate over when a new justice should be confirmed with the election so near. Photo credits: Newscom and Yale Law Library

Stop and Start.

Oklahoma quarterback Spencer Rattler (7) throws a pass against the Kansas State defense during an early season game. Some of the top leagues, such as the Big 10 and Pac 12, originally decided to forgo the season due to the virus, only to later change their minds and start the season late. Almost every school played games in front of sparsely filled stadiums, with fans spaced out for social distancing. Photo credit: Newscom

the wait is over

The Los Angeles Dodgers celebrate after winning Game 6 of the 2020 World Series over the Tampa Bay Rays, 3-1, to clinch their first world championship in 32 years. Los Angeles emerged as the winner of the thrilling series over Tampa, which saw just about every game go down to the last out to get decided. Outfielder Mookie Betts sprinted home from third base and slid safely into home on an infield ground ball in the 6th inning of Game 6 to give L.A. the lead. Photo credits: Newscom

Wait Your Turn. President Donald Trump and former Vice President Joe Biden speak during the final presidential debate on Oct. 22 in Nashville. After a first debate the previous month that was considered by many to be overly hostile and disruptive, the October debate became the first U.S. presidential debate where the microphone could be muted during the first two minutes of a candidate's response to a question. One Tall Reef. Aerial and underwater views show the natural beauty of the Great Barrier Reef in Australia. On Oct. 28, scientists conducting 3D mapping of the area announced they had discovered a section on the northern tip of the Reef that was more than 1,640 feet, or taller than New York City's Empire State Building. The area was a healthy and thriving sea habitat. Photo credits: Newscom and Mike J. Gale were you entertained?

These stories made headlines in the world of pop culture.

Score

FIFA 21, the latest edition of the popular soccer video game, is released to gamers worldwide.

Movie Night

After closing for several months due to COVID-19, movie theaters can reopen in New York City at 25% capacity.

The Child is back! Season 2 of the hit TV show "The Mandalorian" premiered on Disney+. Photo credit: Newscom

Be the Judge. Judge Amy Coney Barrett takes the oath of office to the Supreme Court on Oct. 26. After the passing of Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg a month earlier, President Donald Trump nominated Coney Barrett as her replacement. The Senate decided to confirm her to the Court, even though it was only one week before the national election. Photo credit: Newscom

Health Scare. President Donald Trump salutes Marine One after the presidential helicopter returned him to the White House from Walter Reed National Military Medical Center following his weekend hospitalization for COVID-19. Trump announced that he and First Lady Melania Trump had tested positive for the virus on Oct. 3. They received many wishes for a speedy recovery, with balloons seen outside the hospital. Photo credits: Newscom

Not Over Yet. A healthcare worker in Tennessee performs COVID-19 tests at a Memphis drive-thru clinic. COVID-19 cases soared in October, breaking the previous daily records set over the summer, with 99,784 daily cases on Oct. 30. Economic pressure to reopen, individuals relaxing personal safety measures and colder weather keeping people inside all contributed to the second wave. Photo credit: Newscom

A Long Time Coming.

The OSIRIS-REx spacecraft prepares to touch the surface of the asteroid Bennu on Oct. 21, located approximately 200 million miles away from Earth. Originally launched in 2016, OSIRIS-REx successfully collected samples and started its journey home. In another big breakthrough, NASA scientists confirmed they found water deposits on the surface of the moon by using infrared technology. Photo credit: Newscom

NOVEMBER

Rise to the Top. Professional rock climber Emily Harrington scales the El Capitan vertical rock formation at Yosemite National Park. Harrington became the first woman – and only the fourth person – to free-climb the notoriously difficult “Golden Gate” route in less than 24 hours. She began her climb at 1:34 a.m. on Nov. 4 and finished in 21 hours and 13 minutes. Photo credit: Jon Glassberg, creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0

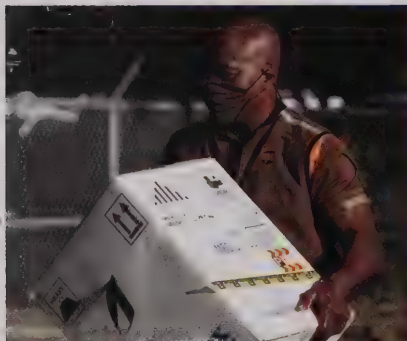

Cover Girl, Cover Boy, Cover Baby.

It's a series of firsts for iconic magazines. British musician Harry Styles was featured in Vogue magazine – the first man to pose solo on the cover in the publication's 128-year history. Actress Emma Roberts made history as the first pregnant person featured on the cover of Cosmopolitan magazine, showing off her burgeoning belly in a pink crop top. Photo credit: Newscom

modern(a) medicine

Registered Nurse Rosalinda Lopez proudly poses after receiving one of the nation's first COVID-19 vaccines. The Food and Drug Administration granted emergency approval to the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine on Dec. 11, and the Moderna vaccine received approval one week later. Healthcare workers and long-term care residents were among the first to receive inoculation as the vaccine was immediately sent to hospitals across the country. Photo credits: Newscom

Happy Days Ahead. The world's loneliest elephant, Kaavan, moves from Margazhar Zoo in Islamabad, Pakistan, to a new home with more social interaction and better living conditions. Singer Cher garnered support on social media for Kaavan's safety by creating a viral campaign. Four Paws, an international animal welfare organization, transported Kavaan to a conservation park in Cambodia where other elephants reside. Photo credit: Newscom

Sister Act. Taylor Swift releases her ninth studio album and second of the year on Dec. 11, Evermore, a sister album to July's Folklore. It was the first time Swift released two albums in one year. All 15 songs made it onto the Hot 100 list. Photo credit: Chynna Flock

A Challenging

Suit. Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton files a Supreme Court lawsuit alleging election fraud. Backed by 17 states and President Donald Trump's support, he argued four battleground states should have their votes invalidated. The Supreme Court declined to hear the case.

Stop Everything for GameStop.

Struggling video-game retailer GameStop sees an unexpected 400% gain in shares. A group of Reddit amateur stock traders encouraged members to invest in GameStop when they learned a major hedge fund borrowed shares — a tactic called short selling that depends on a business depreciating in value. GameStop shares skyrocketed in price, while Wall Street hedge funds reported a loss of $13.1 billion. Photo credit: Newscom

Welcoming the 46th

President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris are sworn into office on Jan. 20, and Biden signs 17 executive orders the same day. Musical performances by Lady Gaga, Jennifer Lopez and Garth Brooks, as well as National Youth Poet Laureate Amanda Gorman's recitation of her original poem "The Hill We Climb," were among the highlights of the ceremony. Former President Donald Trump was not in attendance, the first outgoing president in 152 years to skip the ceremony, though former Vice President Mike Pence did attend.

Roll Tide. Alabama Crimson Tide Wide Receiver Shatarius Williams celebrates following a 52-24 victory over the Ohio State Buckeyes. This was the 18th national title in the Crimson Tide program's history. The game, held Jan. 11 in Miami, Florida, only allowed 16,000 fans to watch from within Hard Rock stadium.
